FEATURED 2010 SUMMER SEASONAL BITTERS

ITEM NUMBER	ITEM NAME	DESCRIPTION	BOTTLE SIZE	PRICE PER BOTTLE
SS100303	CELERY – LOVAGE BITTERS	Yes! A fantastic bitter for use with herbaceous liquors and cocktails. Think Bright yellow in color from the roots used with a celery seed spice. The fragrant Lovage is sourced from Roscoe, New York. Add it to bloody mary's and chartreuse based drinks – Chefs use it to flavor dishes as well.	2 OZ.	-10.
SS100304	NASTURTIUM – CUMIN BITTERS	Windfall Farms in Montgomery, New York specializes in unconventionally grown specialty produce. Fresh Soft Nasturtium Flowers is one item that is outstanding in these bitters. Include unconventional spices with Vanilla and they are great with cocktails!	2 OZ.	-10.
SS100302	LICORICE – NECTARINE BITTERS	Local Nectarines chosen at the peak season and combined with 2 forms of anise flavoring agents. Warm Spices round out the background.	2 OZ.	-10.
SS100301	LEMON VERBENA BITTERS	This is a Bitters that was initially produced in the hot summer of 2008. The Lemon Verbena is sourced from Farms in both Sayville, Long Island and Pittstown, N. J. It utilizes almost all fresh products and gives notes of the Intensely sharp Lemon Verbena, young Ginger, and Lemongrass. It's great for use as a Light Spirit Bitters or for finishing touches in composed dishes.	2 OZ.	-10.
SS100300	HIBISCUS – ROSE BITTERS	A combination of two botanicals come together to create this unique bitters with an intense violet color. Floral from the Roses and balanced with the natural acid and Dry qualities of Hibiscus.	2 OZ.	-10.
